

We Want You Take Over @Get2KnowNoke on Twitter

The Roanoke Region is a community of awesome people, places, events, and culture. And we want people all over the region to see and experience everything out there that they can.

To do that, we invite you to share experiences in Alleghany, Botetourt, Franklin, and Roanoke counties; the cities of Covington, Roanoke, and Salem; and the town of Vinton through our Twitter Takeover program.

Sign up to tweet from the Roanoke Regional Partnership's @get2knownoke account for a week. We'll change our avatar to your picture and let everyone know that you're doing the tweeting.

Our goal is to bring real voices to our Twitter account to show our followers what it's like to live, work, and play in the Roanoke Region.

You'll have to agree to a few ground rules, and you can't use the program to sell anything. If you want to request a specific week to tweet, that's fine, too.

APPLY TODAY. (It only takes a couple of minutes.)

Not sure what to tweet? We can help you with that.
